The session will be 1 hour long

- We start with introductions
- Alice will say a little about Ndti and the Time to Talk Next Steps programme
- Then Ruth will share their experience and their views on inclusion and equity
- At the end we will answer questions

If we don't have time to answer your questions we will come back to you after the session with the answers.

This session WILL NOT be recorded or shared with the public

Please feel free to join in and share your ideas and thoughts – you can use your voice or use the chat.

Please put your name and your interest in this session in the chat

Put your questions in the chat or you can ask them at the end

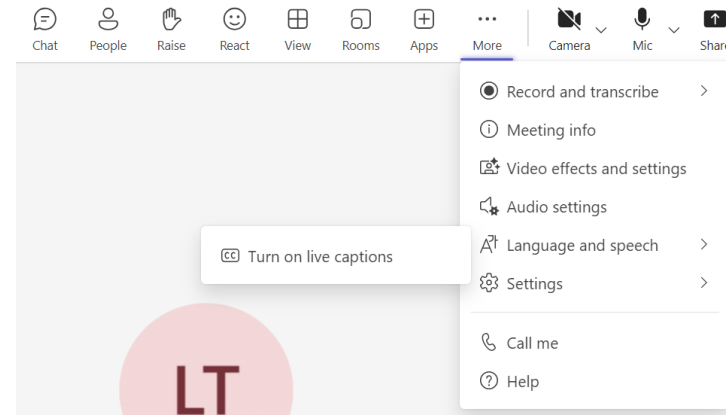

You can keep your camera on, or have it turned off – we'd love it if you can give us a wave 😊

Please keep your microphone on mute while people are presenting

If you want to turn on automatic captioning, you can do this by:

We are a not-for-profit organisation working to enable people at risk of exclusion, due to age or disability, to live the life they choose.

Our work aims to drive inclusion by:

- enabling people's voices to be heard
- coproducing programmes & resources which celebrate what's possible
- supporting changemakers & building self-determination

Time to Talk Next Steps has been run by the Children and Young Peoples Team at NDTi

Other work includes and Preparation for Adulthood Internships Work \(Employment\)

Time to Talk Next Steps

contact For families with disabled children

Time to Talk Next Steps is a rights-based support programme for young people with additional needs aged 16 – 25 and their family/carers (in England)

NDTi has run this programme in partnership with Contact, a national organization which provides support, information and advice to parents and carers (www.contact.org.uk)

The programme has run for 3 years (2021-2024) and been funded by the National Lottery Community Fund.

Welcome to our Celebration

In these sessions young people, family/carers staff focus on

- What the Time to Talk Next Steps programme is
- Young peoples views and achievements
- Plans for the future

Mic off

My involvement in Time to Talk Next Steps

When I first joined I was out of education for the second time

I was one of the first young people who signed up

I was unwilling to be seen on camera

Bit about me

I am an expert by experience with
NDTI

I love photography and my animals

I run a charity called
