Learning Together: Inclusive Research Training

NDTi — National Development Team for Inclusion

What does the training cover?

Our research training is available in easy-read and plain language and includes the following topics:

- An introduction to research

- Staying safe and being ethical

- Introduction to collecting quantitative and qualitative data

- What to do with the qualitative and quantitative data you collect
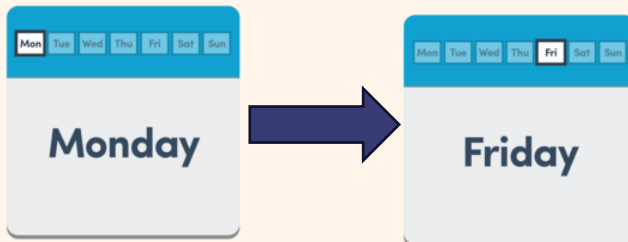

- How to share what you've found.

Click here to learn more about our Training Menu.

How is the training delivered?

Our research training is delivered as 2-hour sessions.

There is also the option to undertake an intensive course.

The training can be delivered online or in person.

What do others have to say about the training?

"It was interesting... I learnt a lot."

"It definitely gave me more confidence to do it."

"I enjoyed it, I want to do more of it."

Where can I get more information?

If you are interested in learning more about our research training, please contact us with the information below.
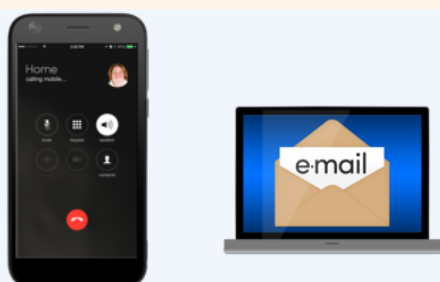

- Name and Organisation

- Contact Number

- Email Address

- How would you like us to contact you (phone or email)

- When can we contact you

- Tell us about the training you would like to know more